Undercover agent Simeon Wallace is after the most dangerous diamond in the world. The beautiful but cursed Eye of God has enchanted its owners for centuries . . . and then destroyed them one and all. Recently stolen from a French museum by an antiquities plunderer, the diamond has been brought to the United States. If Simeon can't acquire it fast, there's no telling what havoc it could wreak among the country's richest and most powerful people.

Assigned to help him is a pretty new operative with the code name Anthem. Their attraction to one another is so intense that they end up in bed only hours after meeting. Simeon loves to get a woman in ropes – and Anthem loves submitting to him. But their bliss is short-lived once they get hold of the diamond. With a crime organization in pursuit, Simeon and Anthem flee. He's immune to the charms of the Eye of God, but she is not. And just when he thinks they've reached safety, Anthem steals it.

He wants it back. He wants her back. But now he has to find them . . . and someone else has plans to get there first.
