Forster's writing is known for its sympathetic nature and that could be seen well throughout his life as he volunteered for the International Red Cross during World War I. In his later years Forster became a well known public figure, first as a broadcaster on BBC radio and then as an honorary fellow of King's College. Some of Forster's best known novels are Howards End, A Room with a View, and Where Angels Fear to Tread, all of which are included in this collection. This collection also includes The Longest Journey and six short stories.
