Preventing distractions in your marriage

Stay focused! Between taking care of the kids, climbing the corporate ladder, and paying the bills, you know you would like to have a fulfilling marriage. It was supposed to just sort of happen, but everything else takes up so much time and energy! Why not take back some of that time to focus on your marriage? Dancing the Tango in an Earthquake features relevant passages from The Message, literary and cultural insights, and conversation starters to provoke profound discussion. Together with your spouse or a couples' small group, read excerpts about seven major marriage distractions and how you can prevent them from clouding your view of the ultimate prize: a marriage that works.
