Lord George Ashford III never asked to be born an Alpha, but while it makes him an undesirable to the parents of most young beta nobles, it does have the advantage of allowing him the freedom to seek out Omega prostitutes for his own pleasure. Billy is a young boy fresh from the countryside, making a living in one of the capital's nicer brothels. He only vaguely knows what being an Omega really means, as he's never even had his first Heat.

Enter Lord Ashford.

This story is a work of historical fantasy fiction approximately 7,500 words long, and contains detailed descriptions of m/m sexual encounters as well as elements of BDSM.

Excerpt:

"Billy emitted a strangled gasp and then a muffled sound against George's lips and then, finally, his body began to relax and his mouth opened, lips parting to let George do with them as he pleased. His posture melted, allowing George to pick up the boy by his hips and place him on the nearest flat surface, which happened to be a cabinet of some kind.

"Ah, ah, please..." the boy whimpered when George bent to lick at the boy's neck, bite at his jaw line, rub his cheek against that smooth skin."
