Dead Family Walking: The Bourque Family Story of Dead Man Walking D. D. Devinci

A "True Account" of what Dead Man Walking (by Sister Prejean) did not tell and did not want you to know. Dead Family Walking sheds the truth about the life of the murderer-rapist buried next to bishops, priests and nuns on "sacred ground" in a Baton Rouge cemetery and details of his forbidden death row intimacy no one was supposed to know about.

Nun's book contains questionable embellishments and according to one victim's parent who was sent a manuscript of Dead Man Walking, "There were lies in there!" Incarcerated Governor Edwards writes jailhouse letter contradicting nun's version of killer's last day and her secret whereabouts the night of killer's execution. Thirty days before execution, killer divulges details to homicide detective of shocking death-row proposal including confessing his hunger to kill again.
