Do you know the rules to the money game? The quality of your living depends entirely on how well you know the rules to play the game. Khalil Abdul Aziz is a student of the game. Like many, he started out not knowing the rules of money. He realized that his education did not equip him to understand how to be financially free. Because of his lack of knowledge, Khalil made several mistakes that cost tons of time and money. No matter how much money he earned he still found himself making foolish choices that caused him to live paycheck to paycheck. Khalil Abdul Aziz who is a father of two believes the solution is educating youth early about money. Khalil is the Founder & CEO of Street Credit, Incorporated an organization designed to teach youth and young adults the "Rules to the Money Game." This book contains the principles he teaches in his workshops. The text is relate-able, captures the reader's attention, and easy to comprehend. Read this book to learn: • How to manage money • Needs vs. Wants • Assets vs. Liabilities • What it means to pay yourself first • Simple interest & Compound interest • How to save early/save often • Entrepreneurship • Invest in real-estate, stocks & business • Financial Freedom • The importance of giving back
