Sacred Places in the Tarot Margaret Letzkus

There are two kinds of energy, that which is seen and that which is unseen. The unseen is the most powerful, but the most difficult to identify. This book was written to aid the tarot reader in discovering the more subtle unseen energies in the cards that create sacred places. These magical places are sometimes overlooked in the tarot as well as in life, but if they are identified and integrated into a reading, they will expand the meaning of the card as well as your overall reading. When unseen energies are woven with seen energies, we begin to recognize the balance between the two. Not only will you begin to acknowledge energies of sacred places in the tarot, you will begin to sense those sacred places surrounding you on a daily basis and find your own path of working with the energies offered. Watch the dance as they create a rich spiritual mixture giving you more depth into the card as well as enriching your life.
