A prince of a guy, a magical setting, and room in her heart for someone special lead to an enchanted-Starry Night.

Sixteen-year-old Christy Miller wants friendships she can count on. But when her ex-boyfriend, Rick, seems to be interested in her best friend Katie, Christy and Katie can no longer talk with the kind of honesty they've always shared. Meanwhile, Todd, the guy who truly holds her heart, is still surfing in Hawaii. Then an old friendship unexpectedly takes on new meaning, and Christy wonders why she never before saw Doug for the prince he is.

All of these confusing relationships collide at the Rose Bowl Parade, leaving Christy wondering what in the world is happening. While she works to sort it out, God gives her the gift of a starry night that leaves her feeling like a princess. But can Christy and Rick talk through their unresolved relationship? Will Doug become her new boyfriend? And with whom will she end up counting stars?
