Hunter grinned but he didn't seem as happy as the guy next to me. More like, he knew crap was about to fall. "He can't play when someone's watching him," Justin almost sang into my ear. "Totally screws up then." "But you all are watching him," I pointed out. At the back of the room, someone laughed. "Yeah, but we're not girls." Ryan Hunter's parties are legend. And tonight she's going to be there. Liza Matthews has been in love with her best friend since kindergarten. They've done it all, even slept in each other's bed. But they've never kissed. Weeks away from her seventeenth birthday, Liza hopes that soon things would change between them. But when Tony Mitchell comes home after summer soccer camp, his mind is focused on someone else. And worse, that new girl is a soccer player. Fighting for her love, Liza gets carried away and makes a stupid decision: Without the least bit of talent or passion for the sport, she opts for the co-ed soccer team. The tryouts are hell, the first match ends bloody, and the morning after the selection party she wakes up in the worst place possible—in the arms of the captain of the soccer team. The hottest guy in school. Ryan Hunter. "This is undoubtedly one of the best coming of age stories available today!" -InD'Tale Magazine This is a really short book. You will probably read it in 3 to 6 hours without a chance to catch your breath while turning the pages... If you're unsure whether this is the right book for you, go ahead and read the first half for free before you make up your mind. <http://www.annakatmore.com/play-with-me/>
