What is it like to be a woman who has only known broken and hurtful relationships? What are her experiences of love like and what happens when she feels she is not good enough to live a different life? What happens to her heart when she believes that love never lasts and she has no hope that her life can ever be different? What happens when she has an encounter with God that changes her very perception of life, love, relationships, and men? In these devotionals you will read about the author's journey from brokenness to wholeness, from hopelessness to faith, and how the experience of God's tender love set her free from the damaging effects of hurtful and abusive relationships. Joanne Robinson is a Christian Counsellor, Life Skills Coach, and Trainer. She has experienced the damaging effects of hurtful relationships and is passionate about helping women find their self-worth in Christ and break the cycle of unhealthy relational patterns, too. Joanne is the founder of 'Donna Intera', a training, coaching, and counselling service dedicated to helping women build healthier relationships. She runs a 12-week Right Step Programme to help women break the cycle of unhealthy relationship patterns and develop essential communication and problem-solving skills. Joanne has run workshops in various parts of England, as well as Canada and the United States. She has written many devotionals and articles relating to problem dating relationships and regularly appears on Christian radio shows discussing domestic abuse.
