On Toni Morrison: Community in Toni Morrison's The Bluest Eye, Song of Solomon and Paradise

Michaela Brzobohata

Toni Morrison deals with the topic of community in most of her books. She portrays both communities that care and those which forsake. Her writing seems to reflect the change the black community has been undergoing, as well as her view of a possible remedy for them and their members. After looking at the topic of community theoretically, this work analyzes the alternation in Morrison's proposed cure through her novels The Bluest Eye, Song of Solomon and Paradise.
