Why would anyone deliberately deny themselves of food during a time of prayer? Because adding fasting with prayer is POWERFUL! First and foremost, Christians should fast and pray in order to establish or reclaim a close personal relationship with God. Fasting while praying is a spiritual discipline that can compel God to set things in motion and bring about solutions to burdens, concerns, and challenges that would otherwise seem impossible to overcome. Whether you have always wanted to fast or have fasted as a regular part of your spiritual life, this Six Weeks Small Group Study Guide will prove to be an enjoyable easy-to-follow tool for instructing on why and how to fast as you also commit yourself to prayer.
