Is the Christian Bible truly inspired by God and free of error? We are told from an early age not to doubt or even question these premises, yet how will we know for certain if we don't ask the questions and then seek the answers. This book dares ask the forbidden questions, then provides analysis from both a scientific and scriptural comparison. This is not a book of answers to every question on religion, but rather it is an intellectual prompt. Call it a sign post, pointing the way to a new understand of the holy texts.
