Wouldn't it be great if there was something you could do to help your students cut down on their torts study time?

There is, and it's called Legalese to English: Torts! Nanos and Sileo are at it again, breaking down tough concepts and confusing cases into nice, easy, bite-sized pieces with their newest title, Legalese to English: A Workbook for Torts!

After learning the basics about each torts subtopic (like duty, proximate cause, consent, etc.), students need a good study plan to follow throughout the semester. This book gives them that plan, in a step-by-step format. Throughout the book there are writing exercises to solidify topics, as well as study recipes at the end of each chapter that will guide students from the first day of class to an A on your final exam.
