Everyone is talking about community. Everyone seems to want it, but most struggle to find it.

Matt and Hugh have written The Tangible Kingdom Primer with two specific purposes. First, to be a spiritual formation tool to prepare your heart for mission. We want you to grab a few friends to go through this with, there is no big commitment required to becoming an incarnational community. You can simply be friends going through an 8 week spiritual exercise together. You can challenge each other as you build a community, and you will have a much better experience as you process your struggles together.

The second purpose is to be a field guide for starting mission together. Some of you are ready to go and have friends that want to go with you. If that is you, then dive right into the Primer as both spiritual formation and missional practice.

In either case, at the end of the eight weeks, you will have the opportunity to decide what to do next. Remember, this is just a Primer to begin building lifelong habits. Some of you will just thank each other and move on. Others will decide to formalize your missional community as you go on mission together. There is no failure here, just a chance to create your own incarnational community.

The Tangible Kingdom Primer is an 8 week, daily Workbook/Journal that will help you define new terminology, inspire the imagination with full-color graphic design work, and provoke new missional practices naturally. A great resource for existing churches, small groups, or new communities.
