Too smart. Too sexy. Too young...

Successful, fun-loving Porter Ross has fallen totally in love with Toni Corbett. He wants her in his bed and in his life--and he usually gets what he wants. Not this time. When he makes his move, the lady says, "No." Resoundingly. Major ego crush.

Toni's counted the years between them and decided he's too young for her and definitely not ready to be a dad to her five-year-old son. Porter might make her knees weak, but anything beyond friendship is a non-starter. A Cougar, she will not be...

Porter blames it on her crazy math and he's determined to turn her no into a yes. If that means he has to make personal changes, physically, financially, and emotionally, he's all in.

He'll prove he's man enough for Toni--and he'll do it in six months or less.
