Christmas Tree Catastrophe (Lily Bloom Cozy Mystery Series Book 6) Lyndsey Cole

Lily Bloom couldn't be more excited for Christmas Eve when she will say "I do" to the man she loves. She just has the library opening to get through and then all the town's focus will be on her.

But things start going wrong almost from the very first moment she's getting setup for the library's event. Not only is there plenty of disagreement among those helping, but one of the co-chairs who is in charge of the whole event winds up dead the day before the ceremony.

With everyone who was helping setup under a microscope, Lily is in a race against time to be able to get married. When one of her best friends winds up in jail for the murder Lily knows she didn't commit, the pressure's on to find the real murderer.

Will Lily be able to prove her friend's innocence? Or will she find herself in even more trouble and face a wedding in a jail cell or the hospital? Or worse—will there be no wedding at all because the bride is the new target?

A holiday recipe also included!
