She'll do anything for thickness...even kill herself for it.

Chance hates her slimness. She feels left out in the cold because of her lack of size. Society caters to full-figured women during her era. Most guys lust and dream about dating women rocking double digit clothes. She'll do anything to live thick and sacrifices herself in the process. And when she does live the life of a plus size woman, she'll know the true meaning of "be careful what you wish for."

Thick When the Chances are Slim is a comedy/drama/erotic novel that shows the importance of self-acceptance while finding comfort under your skin regardless of size. The story will grip your eyes through every shock, laugh, and heart pumping action from the first sentence to the last.

Feel the blaze, a Nah'Sun blaze
